Present your students with an efficient and discreet method for locating information on health, body image and sexual identity with Teen Health & Wellness from Rosen Publishing Online. An excellent addition to your school’s online resources, Teen Health & Wellness provides up-to-date information on health and fitness that is often missing from other online databases. Developed with teens in mind, this resource provides research articles and self-help on topics, including:

- Diseases
- Fitness
- Drugs and Alcohol
- Mental Health
- Friendship and Dating
- Diversity
- Green Living
- Family Life
- Nutrition and more...

Additional features include:

- Customizable local hotlines, plus national 24-hour hotlines for teens in crisis.
- Expanded teacher resources to make the most of your subscription.
- Multiple paths to information using browse, search and high-interest features.
- Advanced search functionality, including “Did you mean?” searching.

Teen Health & Wellness is ADA compliant and aligned to national curriculum standards. All content is reviewed by leading professionals in medicine, mental health, nutrition, guidance and career counseling. This database follows all Children’s Internet Protection Act Regulations – no personal data is requested for use on this site.
